

ALLOWABLE QMHP DEGREES
APPROVED BY DBHDS

The Community Mental Health Rehabilitation Services Manual currently defines a human services field to include degrees in social work, gerontology, psychology, psychiatric rehabilitation, special education, sociology, counseling, and human services counseling.

Additional Human Service Degrees that would be approved for Qualified Mental Health Professionals are as follows:

Mental Health Counseling
Community Counseling
Counseling and Development
Counseling Psychology
Pastoral Counseling
Rehabilitation Counseling
Counselor Education, School and Community Counseling
Counselor Education and Human Development
Counseling and Human Development
Education with a major in Counselor Education or Counseling Education
Education and Psychology
Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling
College and Community Counseling
School Counseling
Art Therapy
Music Therapy
Human Services
Human Services: Marriage and Family Counseling
Health and Human Services
Forensic Psychology
Special Education
Sociology
Behavioral Sciences
Marriage and Family Therapy
Marriage and Family Therapy and Counseling
Family & Child Development
Pastoral Counseling
Rehabilitation Counseling
Health Promotion
Early Childhood Development, Emphasis Special Education